1. There is a concentration camp located just outside Svishtov. The camp has approximately 2,000 inmates.
2. The inmates work sixteen hours a day and their food consists of weak soup twice a day and 250 grams of bread. The overseers continually beat the inmates as the inmates are all considered dangerous to the regime. Many former IMRO men are in this concentration camp as well as many nationalists.
3. At the present time about 1,000 inmates are working on the surrounding farms and the other half work on levees along the Danube River.
4. Colonel Georgi Vurbanov is an inmate of the camp and is looked up to by the other inmates as their leader.
